

I want to send this message as a support of Airl radio station. This station is a positive way for me to spend my time in my car and at work. I work at a church, and this is about the only station that can safely be listened to. I can not believe that anyone would try to cause this radio station to be unavailable.